THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The Central Committee of the Rumanian Workers Party (i.e., the Communist Party) is perpetually having to organize, and then reorganize, according to the latest directives from the Soviet leaders. Here are the latest decisions, under which the Central Committee is expected to set up several bureaus, which will assure execution of Party decisions. There are to be:
  - a. Bureau of Politics and Organization
  - b. Secretariat for Labor
  - c. Control Commission.
2. In addition to these, the Central Committee is now to have the following "Directions" and Commissions:
  - a. Direction of Organization
  - b. " " Cadres
  - c. " " Propaganda and Agitation
  - d. " " Administration
  - e. Commission for Syndical Problems
  - f. " " Peasant Problems
  - g. " " Youth Problems
  - h. " " Feminine Problems
3. Along with these, various city, regional, or sector organizations are expected to set up similar directions and commissions. This is to be finished by Feb 1954. Much importance is, as usual, given to the Direction of Propaganda and Agitation. Party circles anticipate much friction among leading Communists, as they struggle for the higher posts in these new organizations.
